

Application assistance

Begin your application

Your program is eligible for an online application. Lodge your application at <https://applyonline.unsw.edu.au/>

Prepare your application documentation

Applications without supporting documentation will not achieve an outcome.

All students must provide proof of residency in their application. Acceptable documents include a birth certificate, passport or citizenship certificate.

All evidence of your academic history must be presented in the form of official transcripts, testimonials, or digital certificates.

Please note:

- If your name does not match your academic records, proof of name change is required.

Applicants may present professional experience in addition to academic history to meet program entry requirements.

1. An up-to-date and comprehensive Curriculum Vitae.
 - a. Be clear about your tenure (months and years)
 - b. Detail your experience that is relevant to the program
 - c. Ensure your CV is the best representation of you. Pay attention to formatting, spelling and grammar. Remove any irrelevant information for a succinct CV. Here is an annotated example of a good CV
 - d. If you are from a non-English speaking background and have work experience in Australia or another recognised English speaking country* this must be accompanied by proof of residency (e.g current and prior visas)

*please refer to a list of recognised English speaking countries at the English Language Requirements information page

An Admissions Officer may be in contact with you if any additional documentation is required to assess your application.

Previous studies

As part of your application, you will be required to declare information regarding any formal education you have previously undertaken—either completed or incomplete. Please be prepared to provide transcripts to support your claims. If you have previously studied at UNSW, the Admissions Team will have your academic history on record.

English Language Requirements

For students from a non-English speaking background, please refer to the English Language Requirements information page. We advise you to submit any relevant documentation to your application to reduce potential processing time.

Achieving an outcome

Provided that you have submitted all required documentation with your application, assessment and a response from the Admissions Team can be expected within 5 business days.
